Bankruptcy, Receivership and Insolvency Services

SLBiggs, A Division of SingerLewak has over 45 years of expertise in bankruptcy, receivership, and insolvency matters. With a client base spanning trustees, receivers, attorneys, government agencies, financial institutions, and debtors-in-possession, the firm is recognized as a leading authority in this specialized field.

As a niche practice within a large firm, we offer the highly responsive, industry-specific knowledge our clients rely on, with the depth of talent and resources required to handle major, complex cases.

Our extensive knowledge and experience is born in the trenches of handling thousands of bankruptcy, receivership, litigation, and forensic accounting cases – many among the largest and most complex in the country.
