

STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT
A Client Service Group by SingerLewak

Stakeholder Expectations

Local governments serve a diverse group of stakeholders, including:

- Elected officials and governing bodies
- State and federal agencies
- The communities they represent.

Core Services

- Financial statement audits, reviews, and examinations
- Compliance and Uniform Guidance audits
- ACFR preparation and reporting support
- Accounting standard implementation
- Board and staff training

Focused Expertise

- Counties
- Cities
- Special Districts (i.e., Water, Fire, Cemetery, etc.)
- Municipalities

Audit Quality System

- Staff trained in Governmental Accounting and Financial Reporting
- Audit processes custom designed for local government engagements
- Comprehensive review of financial statements

Local Government Assurance Practice

The Skills You Need

We provide reliable communication, meet tight deadlines, and stay closely involved at the partner and manager level

Our audit and advisory services help governments:

Strengthen accountability

Meet reporting and compliance requirements

Deliver timely, accurate information to stakeholder

With decades of experience and long-standing client relationships, we bring practical insights across a wide range of government entities.

What Sets Us Apart

- Direct access to senior leaders
- Proactive, ongoing collaboration
- Timely issue resolution with no surprises
- Responsive communication and consistent delivery
- Hands-on senior involvement throughout engagements

Our dedicated team supports clients year-round with:

- Guidance on evolving accounting standards
- Proven success with financial reporting excellence
- Extensive Single Audit and Uniform Guidance experience

